Today marks the end of 2nd term 2021/2022 session. We thank the Almighty God for His grace and protection over us throughout the term. May His name alone be praised. We once again sincerely appreciate your unalloyed support, cooperation and great partnership in grooming our great scholars for tomorrows exploits and equally be able to compete with their peers academically, morally and socially. God will reward all your efforts and bless you all abundantly.

We are so happy and fortunate having you all as co-partners in parenting and nurturing the future leaders God has entrusted in our care. You are the most strengthening power in nurturing the future of our children; your constant support empowers us to do more and more. Thank you for playing your part and helping us achieve our objectives, curricular plans and goals for the term.

Included in the package given to each student are the following items:-
