

CIVIC EDUCATION

1) Explain what it means to have the right attitude to work

Right attitude to work means the positive attributes which a worker or an individual shows or displays when he or she is performing his or her given task or job it is also the positive way a worker carries out his or her work with the aim of helping one self and mankind.

2) List the attributes of the right attitude to work and briefly write on any five of them

Answer

- Punctuality: when a person is punctual he or she will always arrive to work early ○ , and always perform any given task early and give the result in time.
- Hardworking: when a worker is hard working the person will always work hard in giving best result for the growth and development of the said establishment.
- Commitment: when a person is committed to his or her duties he or she will not rest till he or she gives an accurate result.
- Reliability: reliability is an importance factor in knowing that the job will get done and it will get done well
- Confidence: Confident employees not only believe in their abilities to manage tasks, but they are also more likely to convince managers, co-worker as well as customers of their abilities as well
- Independence
- Team work
- Leadership
- Dedication

3) State the importance of reward of having the right attitude to work

Answer

- It brings promotion to the worker
- It brings about growth and productivity to the organization
- It promotes recognition and fame for the worker
- It ensures job security
- It makes the organization experience steady progress and development
- It attracts respects for the worker and organization
- It brings joy and happiness to workers

4) What are the consequences of not having the right attitude to work

Answer

- i. It brings about poor quality of goods and services
- ii. It can lead to a strained relationship between workers and employers

- iii. It results in a lack of motivation
- iv. A bad attitude to work leads to bad national image
- v. There will be conflict in such an organisation

5) What is negative behaviour

Answer

Negative behaviour is those anti-social behaviours which affect the society in a bad way these behaviours are not acceptable in the society. It can be described as any action performed by an individual or group of people which is not in line with the expectation of the people living in that society.

6) Give examples of negative behaviours and write note on 5 of the examples you have given

Answer

- Dishonesty: this is the act of telling lies and deceiving people
- Exam malpractice: this is the act of cheating in examination so to enhance someone's performance
- Cultism: this is a group that operates under secret cover at night
- Prostitution: this is engaging in unlawful sexual relationship with different people for commercial purpose
- Disregard for time (African time): Adults and students show high sense of disregard for time instead they call "African time"

7) What do you understand by the word love for money or tendentious living

Answer

Love for money is when an individual is obsessed with money for this he or she finds any way to get the money including ways like stealing, prostitution. It is a negative behaviour that needs to stop

8) State 7 effects of negative behaviour in our society

Answer

- The crime rate will be on the increase in society
- Negative behaviour will lead to underdevelopment of the society
- Low productivity will exist in such a society which is an effect of negative behaviour
- Bribery and corruption will take a front row in the society
- When people have a disregard for time, it will lead to inefficient and delay in their service delivery
- Negative behaviour will result in value disorientation, people will not pattern their lives on the acceptable norms and ideals of society
- There will be a negative impression of any society that encourages negative behaviour

9) list 10 negative behaviours in our society

Answer

- Dishonesty
- Excess love for money
- Drug trafficking
- Human trafficking
- Cultism
- Ostentatious living
- Disregard for time
- Stealing
- Prostitution
- Rape

10) write short note on the effect of negative behaviours

Answer

There will be a negative impression of any society that encourages negative behaviour. Nobody will want to associate with them socially, economically and politically