

History

1) Explain legitimate trade

Answer

Legitimate trade was a commercial relation between Europeans and Africans soon after the abolition of slave trade during the 19th century. This trade was called legitimate that is 'legit/legal'

2) Mention 3 features of legitimate trade

Answer

- Transparent
- Accountable
- Profitable

3) List and explain agents of british colonization in Nigeria

Answer

- The explorers: The explorers came to Nigeria to explore and found out that we had a lot of mineral resources and gave the feedback to the British so they started having interest in our country because of our mineral resources.
- Christian missionaries: The Christian missionaries brought things like education to Africa which made us to trust them and start practicing their way of life and their culture
- Trader: they traded mirrors in exchange for our mineral resources because we were not really educated we were amazed by the mirrors

4) Mention 4 factors responsible for the abolition of slave trade

Answer

- Rise of humanitarians in Europe such as Christians and scholars condemned it on moral grounds.
- Formation of Antislavery movement and the abolitionist movement in 1787.
- The attainment of independence by USA in 1776 left Britain in a dilemma since she had no colonies where she would take the slaves to work.

5) Enumerate and explain the 2 methods of British conquest of the Nigerian territory

Answer

- Military conquest: this is the act of using force and weapon to get what they want from us even if we were not willing to give them
- Treaty making: this is the act of making treaty and bringing it to us since we were not really educated we will sign it without knowing what we are signing

6) What are the differences between direct and indirect rule?

Answer

- Direct rule: this is when the colonial rulers gave us instructions directly
- Indirect rule: this is when the colonial rulers gave us orders indirectly

7. Mention the effects of indirect rule

Answer

- Most of the traditional rulers were involved in evil practices and the system could not prosecute them.
- The system alienated the educated elites`

8. Who is Mungo Park?

Answer

Mungo Park was a Scottish explorer of West Africa. After an exploration of the upper Niger river around 1796, he wrote a popular and influential travel book titled Travels in the Interior Districts of Africa in which he theorized the Niger and Congo merged to become the same river, though it was later proven that they are different rivers

9. Give 3 similarities between direct and indirect rule

Answer

- The messages or orders were both sent by the British
- They were colonial systems of ruling
- Seeks to make children follow and learn their behaviors and lets the culture to remain largely.

10. List 2 effects of direct rule

Answer

- The greatest fault of the Indirect Rule system, however, was its complete exclusion of the West African educated elite from local government