

ENGLISH LANGUAGE

1) With relevant examples, differentiate between /i/ and /i:/

Answer

- i. /i/- dim, big, wit, kid
- ii. /i:/- spider, shiny, pilot, iron

2) Give three examples of the forms of phrases below

Noun phrase

- A bird
- The little boy
- Man of his words

Adjectival phrase:

- They live in a beautiful house
- Lisa is wearing a sleeveless shirt today
- She wore a beautiful dress

Adverbial phrase:

- I came here yesterday
- Once upon a time, the lady lived here
- I will meet with you tomorrow

3) What is a preposition?

Answer

A preposition is a word or group of words used to link noun, pronoun, and phrases to other word in a sentence. Examples are; on, in, at, of, to, by, between, under, and with.

3a) Mention and explain the form of preposition

Answer

- Preposition of Place: Preposition of Place describes the position of the person or the thing in relation to another person or thing.
- Preposition of Time: Preposition of Time is a preposition used to indicate when a particular action takes place
- Preposition of Location: Preposition of location are words that are used to describe the place where a certain object is at a certain time.