

Drama can be defined as a written work that tells a story through actions and speech and is meant to be acted.

Origin of drama

The ancient Greek and Roman drama were most concerned with religious ceremonies of people. It was the religious elements that resulted into the development of drama. As most of the Bible was written into Latin, common people could not understand its meanings. The first plays were performed in the theatre of Dionysus built in the shadow of the Acropolis in Athens at the beginning of the 5th Century, but theatres proved to be so popular they soon spread all over Greece.

3 Cast

Playwright

Protagonist

Antagonist

Conflict

Cast: This is the people who are listed at the end of a movie or play.

Playwright: This is the script which they use to act a play or movie.

Protagonist: This is the hero in the movie or ~~that~~

Mr Idrees

1a ~~James~~ entered the headmaster's office with a quizzical expression on his face

b Jameel woke up suddenly and saw his father

c He can not afford to send Jameel to school

d Jameel was the one that saw ~~errands~~ for his mother

e The instruction was for the new student to follow his father and he will come to school the next day

f The sin against man is a sin against God was about not taking his son to school

g The Teacher came to see the headmaster

h The excuse was that he was not smart and doesn't pass school so he works at home for his mother

i He said that not sending your child to school is an offence

j UBE = Universal Basic Education

k The Headteacher said it

l The punishment for parents who failed to send children to school will be sentenced to prison

Imprisonment as prescribed by law

5 The scene was set in the Headmaster's office in the afternoon