

AGRICULTURAL SCIENCE ASSIGNMENT

NAME: ALABI LIBERTY AYOMIKUN

CLASS: SSS 2 SCIENCE A

TEACHER: MR SULE AARON

Questions:

1. Briefly discuss animal management
2. Succinctly explain Rangeland Management
3. Discuss Animal Health Management

Answers:

1. Animal Health Management are the ways of developing and breeding only animals that shows the greatest merit or advantage under consideration such as good feed conversion ,growth rate ,disease resistance ,egg size, e.t.c. It is also the process whereby inherited superior traits are transferred from one animal to the other of the same species. The aim of animal improvement is to produce animals that can give high yield of products in form of meat and eggs. To also produce animals that can provide high quality of nutrients.
2. Rangeland Management is a professional field whose aim is to ensure a sustained yield of rangeland products while protecting and improving the basic range resources of soil, water, plant and also animal like cattle, sheep, and goat.
3. Animal health management quality control, have evolve from a solely curative veterinary practice where diseases or quality problems are addressed. Animal health management is a performance in which animal's health are monitored closely to prevent diseases and infections and to make sure that animals are in good conditions and in a good state of well being.